VOTER FACTS

The Sheriff's Office Is Spending More Dollars Yet Crime Is Increasing

This election year fiscal responsibility is a major topic. We want efficient government. Fiscal responsibility means operating your department without sacrificing services.

In the last 4 years QAC Sheriff's Office spending increased by 41% (FY 2007 - 2010 QAC Office of Finance). Yet County revenue has continued to shrink, with the County Facing a Budget Shortfall of $10.5M (FY 2007/10).

Violent Crime Up 26.1% (FY 2007 - 2009)

AS SHERIFF I WILL:

- Initiate strict fiscal responsibility without sacrificing public safety.
- Initiate proactive police presence in our communities and schools, resulting in a significant decrease in crime.
- Develop a comprehensive traffic plan to ensure the free flow of traffic, particularly during peak commute hours.
- Restore integrity, professionalism and fairness within the ranks of the Sheriff's office.

"Crime is down in Queen Anne's County, in some cases to record low levels. That is because of the county's comprehensive approach to fighting crime. Local and state agencies collaborate through the Violence Prevention Initiative to get violent criminals off the streets, and programs aimed at young people guide first time offenders back to productive lives." Governor's Office August 2010

The Truthful Voter Facts!

To date, Maryland has the lowest homicide and violent crime numbers in a quarter of a century. However, the real story can be told at the local level where the difficult work of addressing violent crime and supporting victims is done every day. Over the last 3 years, through unprecedented federal, state, and local law enforcement collaboration, Queen Anne's County has seen a reduction in the following: (Source: www.goccp.gov)

Violent Crime: -8.6% Breaking & Entering: -23.1% Property Crime: -7.2% Total Part I Crime: -7.3%

There has been less than an 11% budget increase during Sheriff Hofmann's term, the majority is the expense of deputies and benefits. Your Sheriff Gary Hofmann has returned budget money each year!
